6. Bill Buckley Engineering Scholarship Conditions of Application

- a. The information requested in the application form will be used for assessment purposes. All personal information collected during the application process may be made available to members of the selection panel for the particular award.
- b. MESNZ undertakes to store all applications in a secure place and to disclose the information requested in the application form only to those persons involved in the selection of candidates.
- c. MESNZ will normally hold documents about successful applicants for the period of the award. Documents for unsuccessful applicants will normally be kept for six weeks after the award has been made and then destroyed. Unsuccessful candidates may request that their materials, other than information supplied by a third party (see clause “e” below), be returned to them, rather than be destroyed. The request must be made within one month of the announcement of the award.
- d. Consistent with the provisions of the Privacy Act applicants have the right of access to information held about them. Applicants also have the right to request the correction of information held about them.
- e. Information about an applicant from other parties, e.g. a personal reference, which is supplied by a referee or other person on a confidential basis, will not be made available to the applicant.
- f. In order to honour successful applicants, MESNZ will disclose limited information (typically the award, your name, field of study, and a brief background) about successful applicants to engineering organisations and media. If your application is successful, by signing this form you have authorised MESNZ to release limited details to the parties mentioned above as well as placing you on the MESNZ website as a scholarship winner. If for any reason, information about you cannot be released as indicated, you must complete the portion of the declaration (see “Declaration” below) provided for this. In some cases, a candidate may be ineligible for an award if the personal information required cannot be made available.
- g. Applicants must have read the Conditions of Application for the award for which they are applying before signing this declaration. The signed declaration is the applicant’s acknowledgement that they understand and agree to be bound by the conditions under which the award is made.
- h. MESNZ would like to keep in touch with the successful applicants as they progress through their education and training and may call on them for a short report (approximately 200 words) once a year.
- i. The selection panel has the discretion not to award a scholarship if the applications received are not considered to be at a sufficient standard.
- j. Entrants for this scholarship accept that the panel’s decisions are final and that no correspondence will be entered into.

Declaration

I, (name) _____ declare that the information supplied in and with this scholarship application form is complete, true and correct in every particular. I agree to the above conditions with respect to my application for a scholarship administered through the MESNZ Executive. I authorise MESNZ staff to verify any details provided in my application.
